IdeasCity NewYork

IdeasCity is a collaborative, civic, and creative platform that starts from the premise that art and culture are essential to the future vitality of cities. This international initiative provides a forum for designers, artists, technologists, and policymakers to exchange ideas, identify challenges, propose solutions, and engage the public's participation. The initiative was co-founded by Lisa Phillips, Toby Devan Lewis Director, and Karen Wong, Deputy Director, the New Museum.

Past IdeasCity programs have taken place in New York (2011, 2013, and 2015), Istanbul (2012), São Paulo (2013), Detroit (2016), Athens (2016), and Arles (2017).

The IdeasCity Team is Joseph Grima, Vere van Gool, Ladi'Sasha Jones, Chiara Siravo, Emma Macdonald, Nicholas Liong, and Richard Flood.

Map

IdeasCity New York is located at Sara D. Roosevelt Park, on the basketball courts at E. Houston and Chrystie Streets.

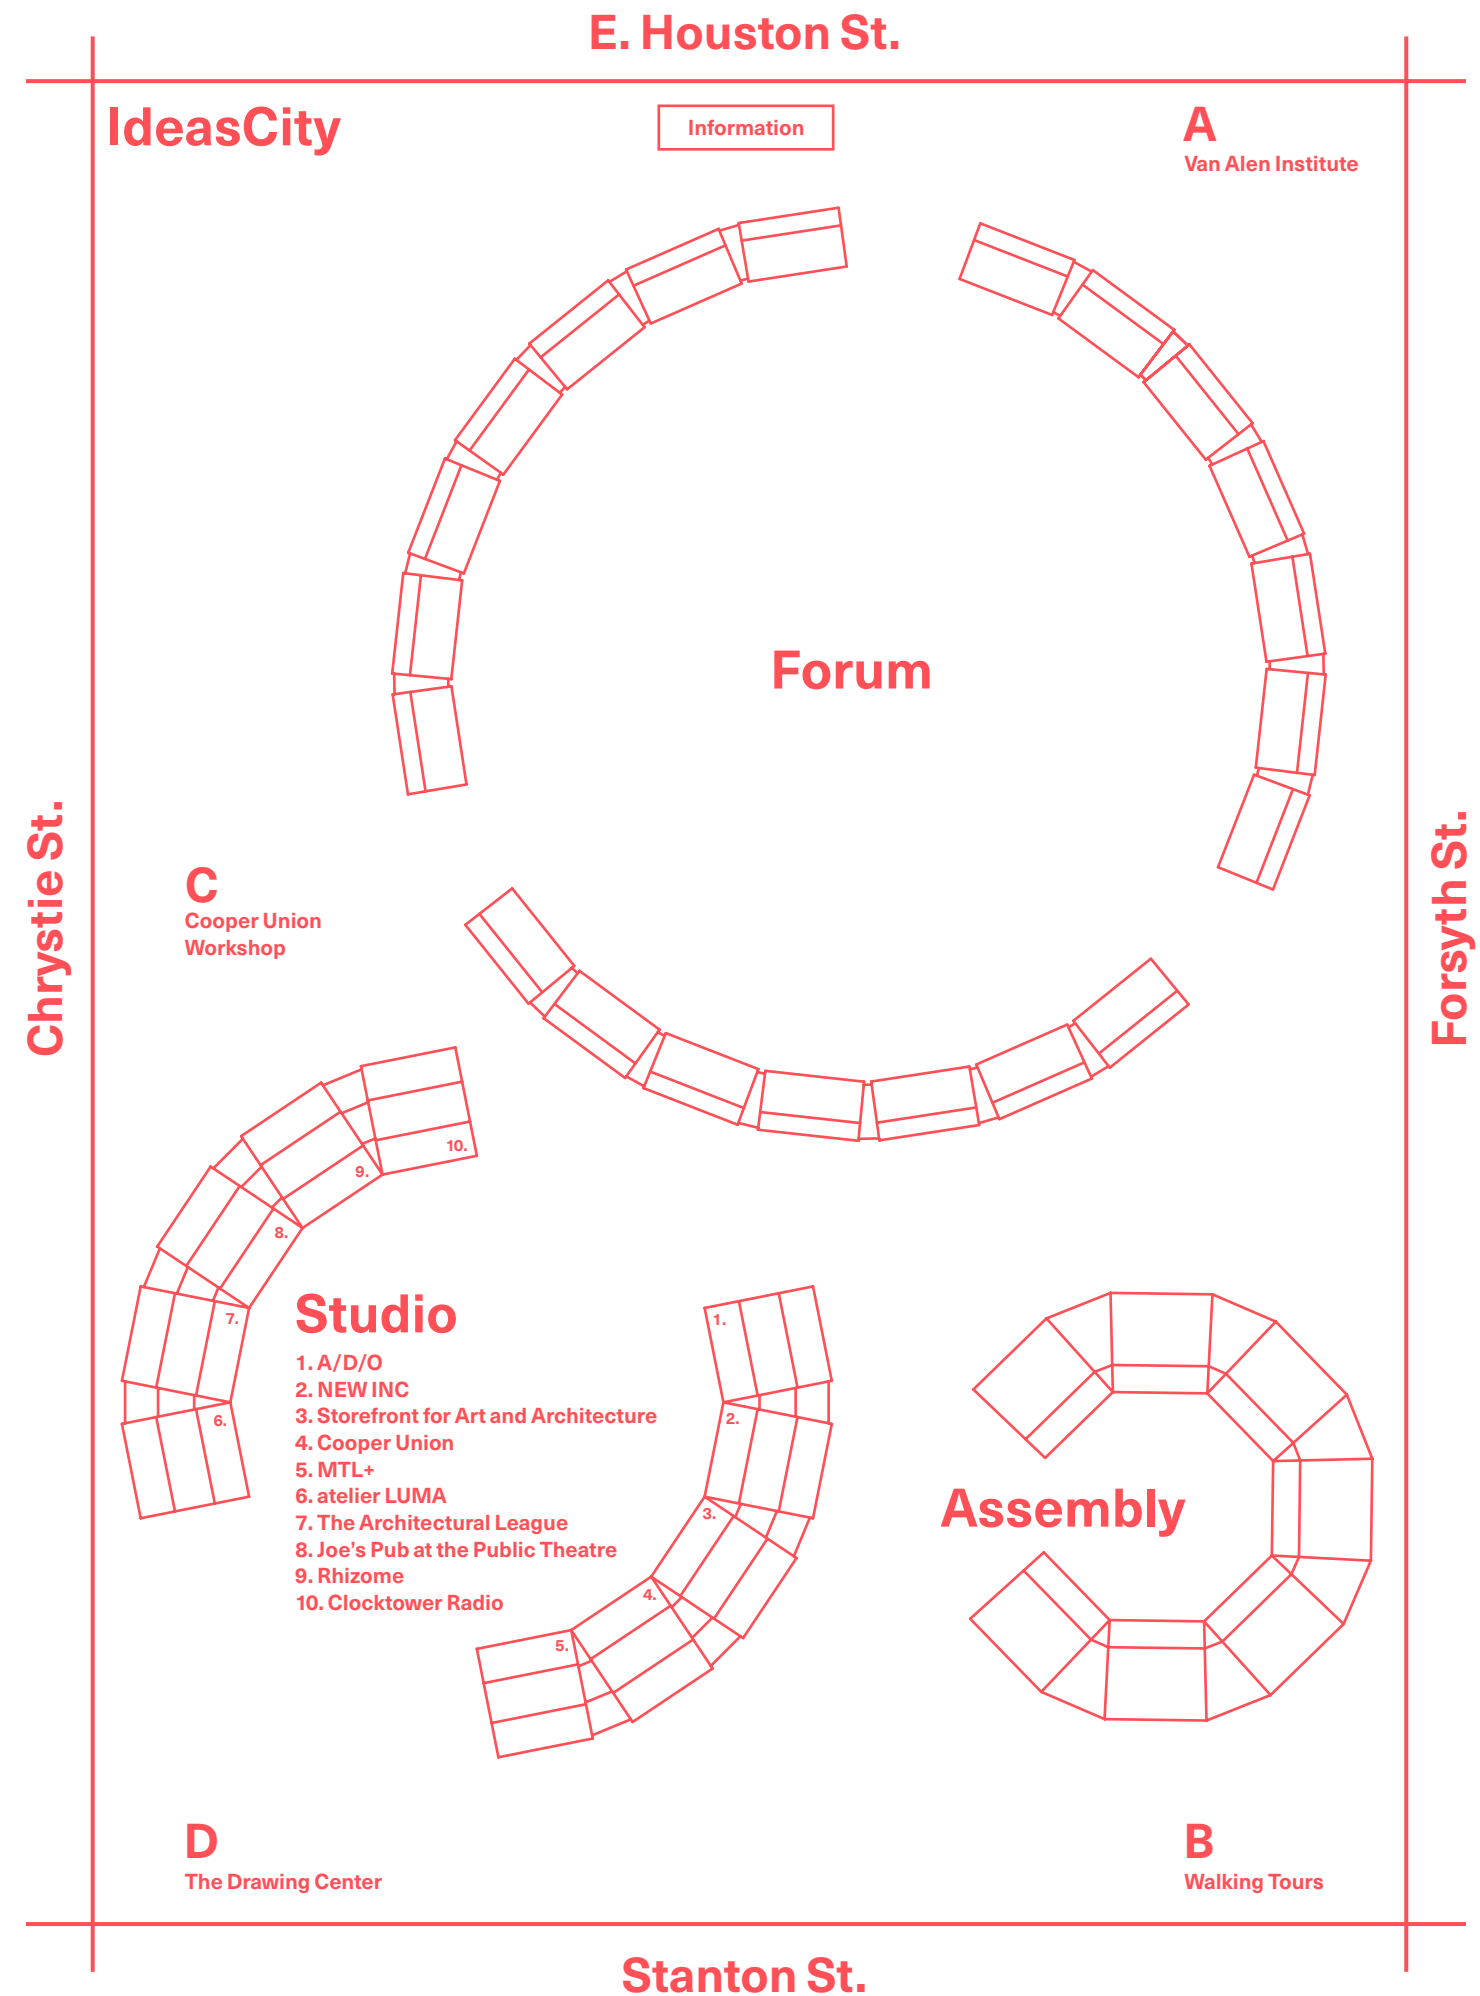

There are three rings of event spaces and meeting points, including:

Forum
The Forum Stage will present keynote lectures, conversations, and a mayors panel.

Assembly
The Assembly Stage will host panel discussions, workshops, and debates.

Studio
The Studio Tables will feature work by partner organizations.

A, B, C, D
A, B, C, and D are location points for all-day events and workshops, and meeting points for off-site walking tours.
