Seven Years of Living Art

Thursday, October 2 and Saturday, November 2, noon to 6:00 p.m.

The exhibition catalogue, co-produced by The New Museum and Agfa-Gevaert, Inc., received a grant of $75,000 toward the costs of programs and operations. The New Museum is accredited by the American Association for State and Local History (AASLH) and the New York State Council on the Arts has awarded $8,500 as a stipend for a Curatorial Advisory Service.

The Museum has a special exhibition and educational event that offers intimate exposure to artists, educators, critics and curators in a unique firsthand encounter with the art of their time. The three-part program includes an in-school visit by the education staff; a visit to the Museum; and a performance piece entitled Seven Years of Living Art.

Artists

Linda Montano

A series of seven performances will be held in the Museum's lower-level gallery. Each performance will take place on the seventh day of the month.

Volunteer Program

The New Museum is the perfect place to volunteer. Whether you are interested in working with children, helping with special events, or providing assistance in the education or audience development department, there is a role for you.

Special Activities Groups

Art Quest is the Museum's collectors' forum. A lively and knowledgeable group of individuals dedicated to the fast-growing field of contemporary art. Membership in Art Quest is limited to 50 individuals.

The New Museum also has a series of special events scheduled throughout the year. These events include: Docent Tour, Artist Lecture, Panel Discussion, Volunteer Opportunities, and more. For more information, please call 212/219-1222.

Acknowledgments

The New Museum wishes to thank a number of special individuals and organizations who have provided support for this exhibition.

The New Museum gratefully acknowledges the generous contributions of the following individuals and organizations:

Grants to the New Museum by Private Foundations and Corporations

Ms. Carr reports that there are still a few sculptures by Bruce Nauman, multimedia artist, on display at the Museum. The visitors to the Museum are indeed fortunate to see this unique exhibition, which is a comprehensive look at Nauman's work. The Museum has received a grant of $75,000 toward the costs of programs and operations. The New Museum is accredited by the American Association for State and Local History (AASLH) and the New York State Council on the Arts has awarded $8,500 as a stipend for a Curatorial Advisory Service.

The New Museum is also grateful to the following individuals and organizations for their support:

1. Art Quest event that others can attend.
2. Volunteer opportunities at the Museum.
3. The New Museum lobby.
4. Invitations to special events.
5. Memberships in the New Museum.

Membership

The New Museum needs your help to continue its programs. Your membership in The New Museum is an opportunity to support art in New York. Please consider becoming a member today.
