8 Things to Do in New York's Art World Before April 1

SATURDAY | Symposium: Independent Art Spaces, and Book Launch: Art Spaces Directory, at the New Museum

As part of its current triennial, the New Museum has joined with ArtAsiaPacific to compile a directory of more than 400 international art spaces. To mark the book's publication, co-editors Eungie Joo and Ethan Swan will host panels with figures guiding the development of those spaces today. The first discussion brings together Participant Inc. founder Lia Gangitano, Artists Space director Stefan Kalmár and others to consider the "unique challenges" of these venues, while the second ventures into the non-physical realm, considering spaces sans real estate.

New Museum, 235 Bowery, New York, 12 p.m.
