

The New Museum of Contemporary Art, founded in 1977 and located in the heart of SoHo, is the premier destination for contemporary art in New York City. With an annual schedule of dynamic and provocative exhibitions, the Museum presents the most innovative and experimental work from around the world. Debate and discussion about contemporary culture is encouraged through a broad range of educational programs, publications, performances and new media initiatives. Join the New Museum and stay on the cutting edge of contemporary culture.

PIERRE ET GILLES

15.sep.00-07.jan.01 The first museum survey of the unique hand-painted photographs by the French collaborative team Pierre et Gilles, who have been working together since 1976. Along with a selection of early works (1982-1988) rooted in mythological iconography, the survey will bring together pieces from Pierre et Gilles' Saints series (1987 and 1991) and their most ambitious series of the 90s, Les Plaisirs de la Forêt. Organized by Senior Curator Dan Cameron.

ADRIAN PIPER

Adrian Piper: A Retrospective and MEDI(t)Ations

26.oct.00-21.jan.01 Adrian Piper played a formative role in the emergence of Conceptual art in the 1960s and 70s, and an even more crucial role in the development of identity-based art in the 1980s and 90s. The New Museum presentation brings together two Adrian Piper exhibitions under one roof.
