

Graham Gussin: States of Mind

Trompe L'Oeil: Fictitious Internet Sites

May–July 2001

media  lounge

New York City's new media space

May-July 2001 at Media Z Lounge

03.May.01, 6.30-8.00 pm Digital Culture Evening Sontext (Debora Warner and Steve Hamilton) will premier the sound work Post Meridian.

10.May.01-01.Jul.01 Graham Gussin: States of Mind features Fall (7,200-1) a computer-generated projection and Beginning and Ending at the Same Time (Horizontal Movie), a new video. In each, Gussin requires viewers to deliberately contemplate what is real and what is simulated in his work.

10.May.01-08.Jul.01 Trompe-L'Oeil: Fictitious Internet Sites is an on-line program of websites that utilize the "look and feel" of already existing sites and elicit a specific expectation through their design and information architecture. Featuring Victoria Vesna, Andy Cox, and Jennifer and Kevin McCoy.

Media Z Lounge is a digital and media arts technology collaboration with Zenith Electronics Corporation.
Media Z Lounge exhibitions are supported, in part, by a grant from the Jerome Foundation. The development of Media Z Lounge was made possible by a generous grant from the Dorothea L. Leonhardt Foundation of the Communities Foundation of Texas. Artbyte is the media sponsor of Digital Culture Evenings at Media Z Lounge. Additional support for States of Mind provided by the Film and Video Umbrella.

For more information, please call 212.219.1222 or visit www.newmuseum.org

Over: Graham Gussin, *Fall (7,200-1) detail (1996-2000)

newnəsnw

583 Broadway, New York, NY 10012