ARTISTS INVITE ARTISTS

February 14 - March 5

Part three of THE NEW MUSEUM's EVENTS series is EVENTS: ARTISTS INVITE ARTISTS. (Parts one and two were presented by FASHION MODA and TALLER BORICUA.) The purpose of EVENTS is to give independent artists' groups in New York City the opportunity to organize and present their own exhibitions at the Museum. Lynn Gumpert, one of the Museum's curators, and Ed Jones, Special Projects Coordinator, asked 12 artists whom they have met through the Museum's Minority Dialog Series to each invite two artists to exhibit in part three of EVENTS. The following are the two groups of artists.

Artists Who Invited:

Benny Andrews
Ellsworth Ausby
Rudolf Baranik
Camille Billops
Mel Edwards
Howard Goldstein
